

Dodge Co., Mishawaka, Starts Work On 12 Story, $1,000,000 Structure In New York—Finished on May First

The Dodge Sales & Engineering Co. of Mishawaka, announces that the excavation for its new $1,000,000 building in New York City at 49 Park place is practically completed. The new building will occupy 165 feet on West Broadway, 50 feet on Murray street and 75 feet on Park place. Present plans call for 12 stories but foundation and construction will permit of an additional four stories if needed. The location of the new building is very convenient as it is located within two blocks of four elevated stations, one-half block from Church street subway station, two blocks from City Hall square and three blocks from Hoboken ferry. The basement of the building and part of the first three floors will be used by the Dodge Sales & Engineering Co. as a warehouse and for the sale and distribution of Dodge, Onida and Keystone products for the mechanical transmission of power, covering both domestic and export needs. The products of the company include pulleys, rope drives, hangers, shafting, bearings, couplings and heavy oil engines, and are all distributed in the main, through 600 dealers who feed from the various branches of the organization located in nearly every large city in the United States. The branches all carry large stocks in their warehouses of factory power transmission devices which enables the dealer to carry in stock, and supply on short notice, any form or unit used.

Salvation Army to Give Xmas Dinner To Deserving Poor

Ensign Schnarr Asks Aid—
"Keep the Pot Boiling" Is Motto.

As has been the custom in past years, the Salvation Army will distribute Christmas baskets to needy families in Mishawaka. Ensign O. A. Schnarr, who is in charge of the local corps, declares that there is more want this year than ever before and many deserving families will perhaps go wanting. Last year 47 baskets were distributed. The funds for these presents are being secured by a "kettle" in the business section of the city.

"It has been coming very slow," Ensign Schnarr commented, when asked how the people of Mishawaka were helping to make Christmas a little bit happier for these families. "So far we have only received $100 through our kettle. This is hopelessly inadequate to fill the needs of all these deserving families. I think it must be that the people are merely forgetting. They have always helped us in the past and I feel sure they will not forget us this year when there is so much to be done. In South Bend and Elkhart there is much more help being given. One week remains and I feel sure that we will "go over the top." We are going to place a kettle on the north side of Mishawaka aside from the one at the main corner. If the people realized what a Christmas dinner means to these poor families we would have enough and over by now."

The story deals with a circus orphan who, being transplanted to aristocratic soil, finds it anything but a circus.

The love affair of two young people and the wistful efforts of "Pat" (Mary Miles Minter) to make herself acceptable to Dick's unbending, aristocratic parents, together with the thrill of their life with the wandering circus, makes one of the most appealing and exciting pictures ever shown in this city. It is a drama that is clean and wholesome, and every member of your family will enjoy it.

sugar, coffee, celery and a can of milk. A special Christmas number of the Salvation Army periodical, "The War Cry," will be included with each basket. Each case of want is being investigated by Mr. Schnarr or a member of the corps and a ticket given to every family which is proved to be worthy. The tickets will be given away at 4 p.m. on S. Main st. In addition to the baskets, clothing will be distributed. If a sickness or infirmity prevents any of those who are to receive baskets from coming for their dinner the baskets will be taken to the homes. The quantity of the baskets will be about the same, but special provisions will be made for large families.

On Christmas eve 200 children, most of them pupils in the Salvation Army Sunday school, will be given an entertainment at the hall. Goodies, candy, oranges, apples, etc., will be passed to the kiddies by Santa Claus himself and a little toy will be given to each child at the close of the evening's entertainment.

How a wife discovers the real criminal and clears her husband who has been accused of stealing a large amount of money from the bank where he is employed, is made the theme of "Luring Lips," today's featured drama at the Century. Adele and Dave Martin are newly-weds, when the hard-working young husband is suddenly accused of stealing the missing $50,000. The bank is under the charge of Fred Vibert, who pretends to be a friend of the Martins, but who is really a thief and plotting to steal his friend's wife as well. The final of the picture is brought about by a clever trick and comes as a real surprise to the spectator. Edith Roberts makes a bright and attractive heroine and she is given ably
